Title: Oh, Susanna Wesley!

Speaker: Pati Kachel

Session #: 4 Day/Time: Saturday, 04/18/20, 1:00 PM

Susanna Annesley Wesley

1669 - 1742

*"Blessed are those that endureth tribulation,
for when thou is tried, thou shall receive the crown of life,
which the Lord hath promised to them that loveth Him."*

- St. James 1:12

In this workshop, professional storyteller Pati Kachel will be authentically portraying MRS. SUSANNA WESLEY, telling her remarkable story in the first-person narrative style. The story script reflects the true events in the life of this British woman and the ways that she met the many challenges that she faced through her prayers and deep faith in Jesus Christ.

The setting of this story takes place towards the end of Susanna's life, in the year of 1741. She is seated in her small apartment, next to Wesley's Chapel, City Road, London. Her son, John Wesley provided this quiet place for his mother to live comfortably in her later years.

*"Thy Word, O Lord, is eternal. It stands firm in the heavens.
Thy faithfulness is unto all generations.
Thou hast established the earth and it abideth.
Thy laws continue to this day according to Thy ordinances,*

*for all are Thy servants.
If Thy law had not been my delight,
I should have perished in my afflictions.
I will never forget Thy precepts, for by them,
Thou hast sustaineth me and preserved my life."*

- Psalm 119:89-93
